

Be a Relatives Connector!

A Connector is a highly valued, short term volunteer role who introduces their friends, neighbors, and colleagues to The Relatives work. The more community members who know about The Relatives, the more youth and young adults we can serve. An ideal tour has 8-10 members of your networks.

Help young people experiencing crisis in our community by inviting your friends to Meet The Relatives. Share your interest in The Relatives work with your friends and neighbors by taking a short-term volunteer role as a Connector. You supply your “why” and your network, Relatives staff will do the rest.

What does a Connector do?

A Connector helps the almost 54,000 young people experiencing crisis in our community by introducing their friends, neighbors, and colleagues to The Relatives work. The more community members who know about The Relatives, the more youths can be helped. An ideal tour has 8-10 members of your networks.

- Who in your neighborhood are you especially close to? Is there a neighbor you’d like to know better?
- Do you belong to a book or supper club?
- Are you part of a bible study or church fellowship group?
- Are you part of a run club or workout class?
- Who in your office would be interested in The Relatives work?

Invitation Template:

I would like to personally invite you to learn more about The Relatives, a local nonprofit serving young people in crisis, at a casual event I’m hosting. I am passionate about The Relatives’ mission because_____.

This is a special opportunity to learn more about The Relatives, an organization doing important work in our community. You’ll tour the new On Ramp Resource Center and hear truly inspiring stories from Relatives staff members who work directly with young people in crisis.

I hope you'll join me on DATE at TIME at LOCATION for a casual, one-hour tour. I think you would enjoy learning more about The Relatives' mission.

Are You Interested in Connecting with The Relatives?

Nick Stewart, Philanthropy Manager

☎ 704-501-8243

✉ nstewart@therelatives.org